

Spring 2018 Course- Panama Study Abroad

Culture, changing environment and climate

GEOG 5720/6720; HONR 3087

- 3 credit hour course, no prerequisites, supplements your resume, work as well as enjoy Spring Break in Panama, Honors course and Sustainability Minor credit available. Language of instruction: English
- Study the basic principles and processes that have molded the culture and environment of the Republic of Panama
- Discussions on climate change, local, regional and global - the causes and solutions
- Assess how Panama locals have adjusted to various changes brought by Panama Canal
- Visit Panama Canal Authority facilities, learn about maintaining Panama Canal, educational tour of Gatun Lake
- Learn how to use GIS, Infrared Cameras, and other related technologies to do research in Panama. Hands-on experience

For more information contact:

Chandana Mitra chandana@auburn.edu

Geoscience Department

Ken Thomas kdt0011@auburn.edu

The Honors College

REGISTER IN FALL 2017 FOR SPRING 2018 COURSE

CATHALAC
SCIENCE, EDUCATION, AND POLICY FOR PEOPLE

